

2001 POSTER CONTEST WINNERS ANNOUNCED

Eleven enthusiastic poster contest winners were awarded savings bonds and certificates during the Fourth Annual Clean Air Month Poster Contest Award Ceremonies held at the District's Lancaster offices on May 15th.

This year's contest theme was, "Spare the Air in the New Millennium". The contest was co-sponsored by Lockheed Martin Aeronautics Company Palmdale and the Mojave Desert Chapter of the Air & Waste Management Association. The annual competition is held each May in conjunction with Clean Air Month and is designed to promote environmental awareness among local youngsters.

Pictured from left to right are: In Front – Savannah Logsdon (1st Place Age 4-7); Second Row – Veronica Williams (1st Place Age 8-11); Elizabeth Holcomb (2nd Place Age 8-11); Krysten Kimbel (3rd Place Age 8-11); Kristen Messmer (1st Place Age 12-15); Margaret Pluzak (Tie - 3rd Place Age 12-15); Angela Michelle Glass (Tie - 3rd Place Age 12-15); Back Row – Kristin Schumacher (3rd Place Age 16-18); Lauren Rivas (2nd Place Age 12-15); Hong-Viet Victor Ngo (Tie - 2nd Place Age 16-18); and Colin Dunnet (1st Place Age 16-18). Rahim Greenwood (Tie - 2nd Place Age 16-18) is not pictured. First Place winners in each age category received $100 U.S. Savings Bonds, second place winners were awarded $75 savings bonds, while third place winners were awarded $50 savings bonds.

This years' winning posters will be featured in the District's 2002 calendar, which will be distributed during outreach events and to schools throughout the Antelope Valley. The winning posters may also be viewed online at the District's new website at www.avapcd.ca.gov.